

Attention All Luma Homeowners

As a homeowner, the Association's governing documents require you to maintain your property, as the features and systems in your home necessitate routine upkeep. Your dryer vents are no exception. If you are unable to recall the last time your dryer vent was cleaned, then it's time for some maintenance. A-1 Duct Cleaning is offering a bulk discount to Luma homeowners for their dryer cleaning services. The more members that sign up, the greater the discount you will receive for this regular maintenance. Once we have enough people interested, then we will set up a date for A-1 to service your dryer duct.
